In loving memory of our son,

this life January 4th, 1934, and

Who walk with us no more,

They are waiting for our coming,

Broken bones come in for setting. Babies who aren't feeding properly, and older children whose teeth haven't been attended to since they were born, are looked after. The biggest men on the hospital's staff carry on their daily clinic in the morning, diagnose troubles, and give the delicate operations and care to those who are already in hospital.

Last year, for instance, the highly skilled physicians and surgeons on the staff of the Hospital for Sick Children gave free of charge more than 40,000 hours of their valuable time. Put a value on it—say $5.00 an hour, which is too little—and you have more than $200,000 worth of medical services given away in a single hospital.

History of the "R.W." Chest.

This chest, <sup>which</sup> I <sup>by the will of</sup> inherited from Mrs. Alexander Sills <sup>(nee Laura Robinson)</sup> the elder daughter of the late Holden Robinson, of Lot 13, Concession 1, South Fredericksburgh. At the same time I had to pay ten dollars into her estate for it. Her sister, Mrs. Ackerman, of the Sandhurst-Conway area, took the payment. Mrs. Sills <sup>had</sup> said that the chest belonged to her grandmother, the wife of William Robinson. According to these churchyard inscriptions from St. Paul's Church, Sandhurst, she was named Susanna

"Susanna Robinson, born October 14, 1813, died 22 May, 1884.

Stone erected by her three sons, G. W. and H. Robinson and J. Glozenley.

Lizzie T. Fretts, wife of Holden Robinson, <sup>b. 8 Apr. d. 6 Nov.</sup> 1863-1902.

Abner Benjamin died Nov. 29, 1885, aged 16 months
(Holden Robinson born 22 June 1860)

Although the chest admittedly was inherited from Susanna Robinson, it must have <sup>been made for</sup> ~~come from~~ a person with the initials "R.W.", most likely his mother, or an elder sister.

Susanna born Welborn, was twice married. Her first <sup>probably Glozenley</sup> husband was killed in Frontenac County by a falling tree, leaving her with a <sup>posthumous</sup> son, John. She later married William Robinson, and had a daughter & about <sup>four or five</sup> ~~three~~ sons.

The chest is evidently American made, certainly before 1840, at which time, or thereabouts, it was brought to Canada.

Dear Mrs. Hutchinson,

Your name was sent to me by Mrs. Margaret Angus of The Kingston Historical Society. I had written to her for assistance in my genealogical research. She suggested that you might be able to assist me.

I am searching for the parents, brothers and sisters of my grandfather, George Elias Robinson. I am willing to pay for this information.

Enclosed are two photo copies, believed to be of his family. Can you identify them from your picture files?

Also enclosed is a genealogical data sheet of George Elias Robinson. Do you have anything in your files that corresponds with this information? This information might help to identify his family.

I am not familiar with Canadian records. Could you give me some suggestions of where to write for genealogical information? Also can you recommend a good genealogist of the locality where the Robinson family seemed to have lived?

Your assistance in this search is appreciated.

Yours truly,

Ednah L. Breckon

J. C. Clark's Diary, 1831-1864, has this item:

1840, March 31 - A son in law of Mr. Welborn was killed by a tree falling on him, he had been married but a few weeks.

This indicates that Susanna was married about Feb. 1840, and therefore her son was conceived before the 31st March, & was likely born about Christmas, 1840. She must have married William Robinson about 1830.

History of the "R.W." Chest.

which by the will of (nee Laura Robinson)
 This chest, I inherited from Mrs. Alexander Sills<sup>Robinson</sup> the elder daughter of the late Holden Robinson, of Lot 13, Concession 1, South Fredericksburgh. At the same time I had to pay ten dollars into her estate for it. Her sister, Mrs. Ackerman, of the Sandhurst-Conway area, took the payment
 Mrs. Sills<sup>had</sup> said that the chest belonged to her grandmother, the wife of William Robinson. According to these churchyard inscriptions from St. Paul's Church, Sandhurst, she was named Susanna

"Susanna Robinson, born October 14, 1813, died 22 May, 1884.

Almina Benjamin, died Nov. 29, 1885, aged 16 months
 (Holden Robinson born 22 June 1860)

Although the chest admittedly was inherited from Susanna Robinson, it must have <sup>been made for</sup> ~~come from~~ a person with the initials "R.W.", most likely his mother, or an elder sister.

Susanna, born Welborn, was twice married. Her first <sup>posthumously Glazenby</sup> husband, was killed in Frontenac County by a falling tree, leaving her with a <sup>posthumous</sup> son, John. She later married William Robinson, and had a daughter & about <sup>four or five</sup> ~~three~~ sons.

The chest is evidently American made, certainly before 1840, at which time, or thereabouts, it was brought to Canada.

Dear Mrs. Hutchinson,

Your name was sent to me by Mrs. Margaret Angus of The Kingston Historical Society. I had written to her for assistance in my genealogical research. She suggested that you might be able to assist me.

I am searching for the parents, brothers and sisters of my grandfather, George Elias Robinson. I am willing to pay for this information.

Enclosed are two photo copies, believed to be of his family. Can you identify them from your picture files?

Also enclosed is a genealogical data sheet of George Elias Robinson. Do you have anything in your files that corresponds with this information? This information might help to identify his family.

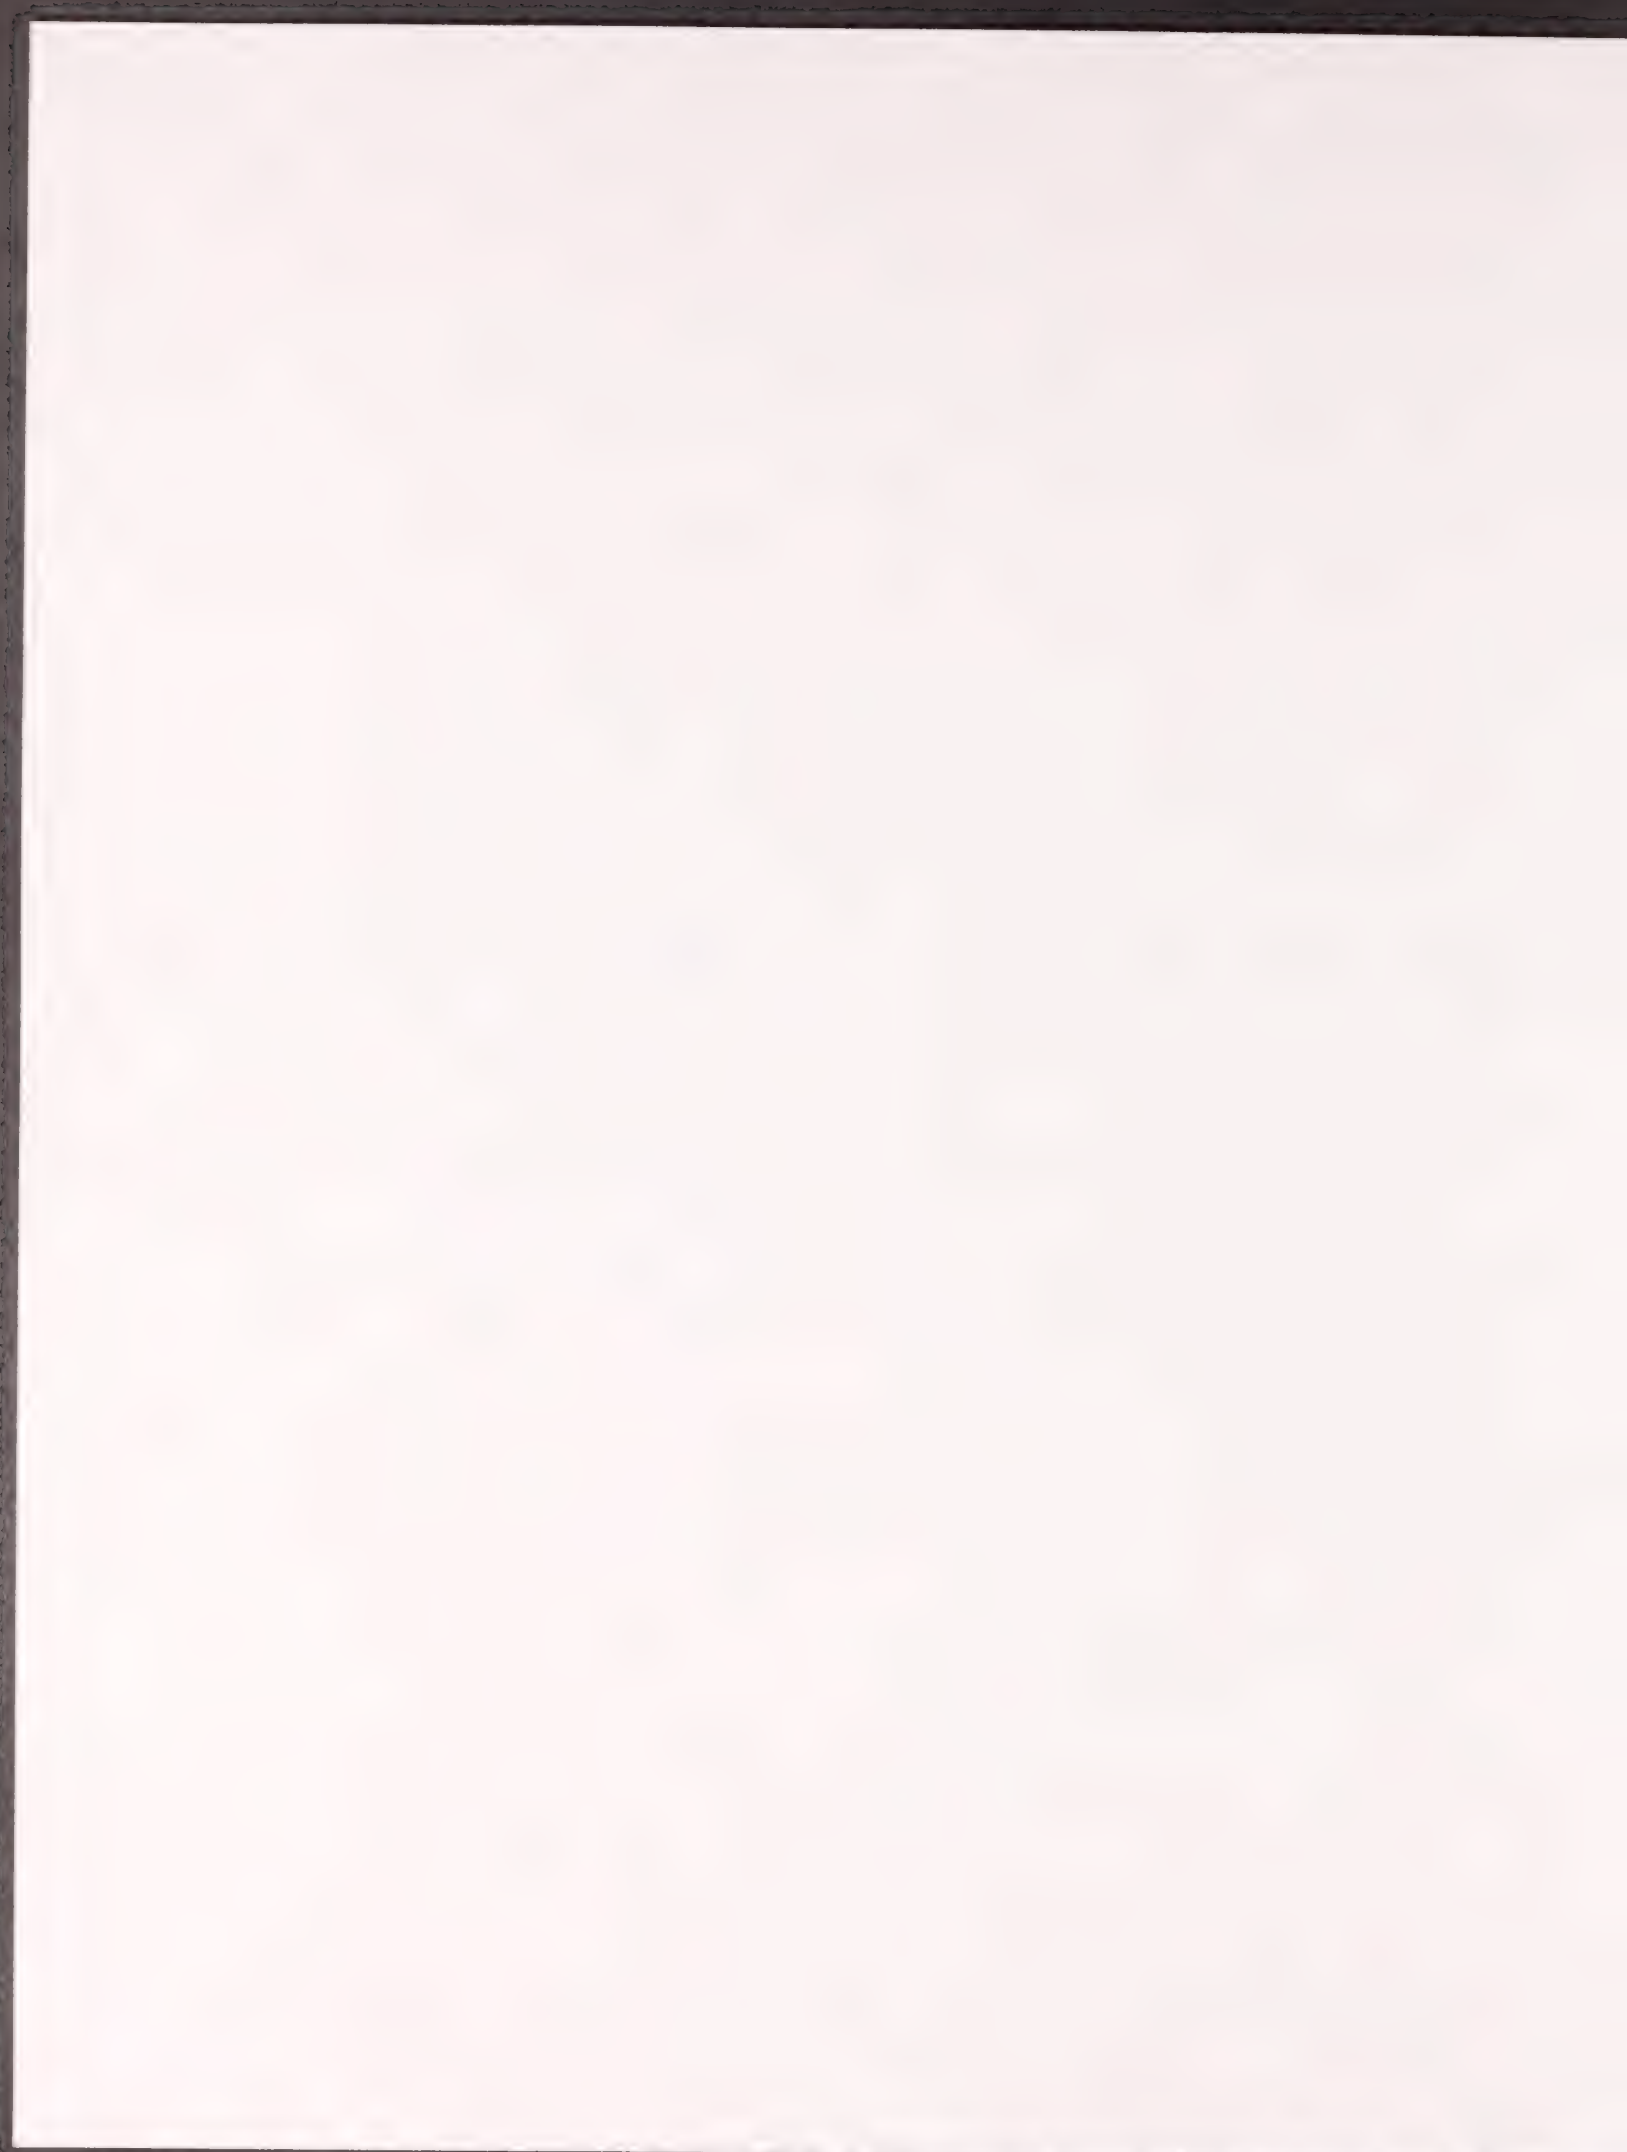

I am not familiar with Canadian records. Could you give me some suggestions of where to write for genealogical information? Also can you recommend a good genealogist of the locality where the Robinson family seemed to have lived?

Your assistance in this search is appreciated.

Yours truly,

Ednah L. Breckon
